

I feel the cell phones are a public nuisance out in public, let alone allow them to be used in a cramped small space on an airplane. Right now they allow you to call once you have landed and that is enough. You can't hear the f/a arrival announcement as it is. I have been a f/a for 35 years and I say NO, NO, NO to cell phones use while in the air.